

Super Laundry Customer Featured in American Coin-op Magazine

PLAINVIEW, NY- JULY 2010 - The July online edition of American Coin-Op Magazine features one of Super Laundry's largest customers, Marc Weiboldt from Wantagh, N.Y., in the article "Seeing Both Sides of the Coin." The story focuses Mr. Weiboldt's perspective on some of the pros and cons of running cashless laundry stores.

Mr. Weiboldt has been in the industry 40 years and has stores of varying sizes, spanning about 100 miles. Super Laundry has been fortunate to provide him with high quality equipment and maintenance services for more than 25 years. More recently, the company assisted Mr. Weiboldt in converting three of his coin-operated stores into cashless, providing his customers greater convenience.

To read the entire American Coin-Op article highlighting the success of our customer, Mr. Weiboldt, visit

<http://www.americancoinop.com/article.cfm?articleID=18153>

Marc Weiboldt standing next to equipment installed by Super Laundry at one of his locations.